The repair reserve is set from the reliability rating and mileage: money to set aside, not a forecast.

Insurance

Coverage	Typical Ridgecrest range	Estimate used
Liability only (CA minimum 30/60/15)	$49–$112/mo	$70/mo
Full coverage (liability + collision + comprehensive)	$94–$243/mo	$135/mo

The budget above uses the liability coverage estimate ($70/mo). Get real quotes and enter one in the app to replace it.

• Vehicle class: common sedan/hatch. Estimates assume an adult driver with a clean record; age, record, credit, and coverage limits change the price a lot.

• Ridgecrest is one of the cheapest places in California to insure a car (about $107–110/mo average).

• A lender will require full coverage. On an older, cheap car paid in cash, liability-only can make sense — but you'd pay for your own repairs after an at-fault accident.

• California's minimum (30/60/15) is low; $100k/$300k/$100k liability is commonly recommended.

• Ask about military/government discounts (NAWS China Lake), bundling, and low-mileage discounts.

Reliability

Rating: Below average (2/5)

The 1.8L Civic is durable and cheap to run, but the photos show a black hood and bumper, a mismatched mirror and door dents, which suggest a front-end hit. That likely explains the price.

NHTSA data for this model year: 3 recalls · 456 owner complaints (55 involving a crash). Most complaints: Air Bags (149), Steering (74), Electrical System (60), Power Train (49), Service Brakes (39), Vehicle Speed Control (38).

Known issues for this model

• Mismatched black hood, bumper and mirror plus door dents suggest a past front-end collision

• 206k miles: suspension, mounts and A/C are wear items

• Coupe: two doors make passenger and bag access a bit tighter

Check on this car before buying

• Check the radiator support and frame rails for crash damage, and confirm no airbag light

• Get the VIN: check recalls and run a history report

• Confirm the smog certificate (seller must provide it)

• Check the oil level and look for leaks

• Run the A/C for 15 minutes
